REVIEW

I haven't been so excited about a little wand that looks and applies like lip glaze wands, well, since lip glaze wands first came out. But this one is WAY more powerful. The delivery of this little wonder is remarkable and innovative. It makes it incredibly easy to put product ONLY on your wrinkles and not have to make the rest of your skin that isn't so wrinkled suffer any breakout type of consequences.

I noticed about a 45% decrease in the depth of my wrinkles after applying it and leaving it on overnight. And each day's use only makes those puppies turn into distant memories. This product works!!! My skin was not irritated at all. And the delivery means no goopie mess, just one twist is enough to brush onto 6-8 full blown creases meaning the wand will last a decent 2 months or so.

This product is an amazing alternative to Botox-like injections and works just as well, IMHO. Results are visible after just one use. After four you'll be amazed!
